Last Sunday Open House
6/19 from 1-3 pm

The Eugene Masonic Cemetery Association invites you to celebrate the unique beauty of Eugene's Masonic Cemetery this summer, the last full Sunday of June. Enjoy nature, history, and music from the Eugene Porch Band. See the grounds, listen to music, and find out what happens behind the scenes. It’s an ideal way to spend a late-summer Sunday.

Music To Die For
The Porch Band

The Porch Band: John Spence, bass, Scoop McGuire, guitar, Rich Spence, drums. The combo has performed in Eugene for 25 years, and this will be their last performance this season. Visit our website for more information.

Birds Appreciate Cemetery Landscape

The cemetery is part of a larger interconnected habitat, which includes the Willamette River and its riparian corridor, the Willamette National Forest, and nearby agricultural lands. The cemetery's landscape also includes a variety of trees and shrubs, which provide food and shelter for a wide range of bird species. The American Goldfinch, for example, is a common bird in the cemetery, and can often be seen feeding on seeds in the grass.
